IAP2 Canada and Noreen Rude from the City of Calgary are hosting a live TweetChat. Participants in the 'A Journey of Change: It's not just about an open house anymore' session at the IAP2 Australasia Conference will be watching this livechat as an example of an online engagement tool. We will be sharing results from this TweetChat after the conference at:

<http://iap2canada.ca/>

You can be a part of this by participating in the TweetChat by following the hashtag #IAP2chat.

What's a TweetChat?

TweetChats are virtual meetings or gatherings held on Twitter.

What will the TweetChat be about?

We will be discussing the use of online tools for public engagement including the use of social media.

How can I participate?

Participate by logging into your Twitter account and following the hashtag #IAP2chat or by visiting <http://tweetchat.com/>. Sign up for Twitter: www.twitter.com

New to Twitter? That's okay! Drop in to watch the conversation instead!

We're continuing the conversation following the TweetChat from October 24-26, 2011. Join us at:
